

Membership Terms and Conditions

Numbers of sympathizers and likeminded persons from the society at large have shown interest in the activities conducted by PROCHESTA CHARITABLE TRUST and expressed their willingness to be associated and voluntarily serve the day to day activities of the trust and also offered to donate towards the noble cause. The Trustees have sincerely considered the matter and discussed amongst themselves how the generosity of those persons can be acknowledged and make them a valuable part in carrying out the objects of the Trust. The Trustees have finally decided that the said persons may be given a membership under the name and title of PROCHESTA BANDHAB subject to the conditions as laid down below:

- 1) The interested person has to apply to the Board of Trustee of PROCHESTA CHARITABLE TRUST in a prescribed form with all necessary information as devised by the Trust.
- 2) The members will have no right whatsoever in the decision making process of the Trust and his/her any action will not cause any binding on the Board of Trustees.
- 3) The acceptance of each such membership is subject to unanimous approval of all Trustees of the board of Trustees.
- 4) A membership fees of Rs 100/- (Rupees Hundred only) per every calendar month will be collected from each PROCHESTA BANDHAB.
- 5) The membership may be cancelled at any time without showing any reason if all the trustees of the Board of Trustees unanimously feel that cancellation of membership of such person is required in the interest of the Trust.

Exemptions from Income Tax:

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees be and each of them hereby is authorized to consult with legal counsel to ascertain the availability of exemption from Income Tax and each of them hereby is authorized and directed to execute and file all necessary applications for exemption from Income Tax before the appropriate authority, and to pay any necessary filing fees.